

Argentine Tango Weekend

with Christy Coté & Darren Lees

and Tango No. 9

Singles welcome, no partner required.

Friday, October 26th

Derek's House, 1343 Pismo St., San Luis Obispo

8:00 – 9:00 pm Chamuyo

9:00 – 11:00 pm Milonga

Kick off the weekend with a free discussion group (chamuyo) & dance (milonga). Christy and Darren will discuss the music, culture, history, and future of Tango, and maybe even some stories from their trips to Buenos Aires. Continue the evening with refreshments, music, and dancing. Please bring a dessert or beverage to share. Questions for Derek? dhs1@charter.net, 805-550-6632.

Saturday, October 27th

Central Coast Dance Studio, 2004 10th St., Los Osos

10:30 – 11:30 am Introduction (First Timers)

This special, $20, intro class is especially for those who are trying tango for the first time and for beginning level dancers. No experience or partner required. Attending this class includes admission to this evening's class / milonga / concert / performance at Cal Poly!

11:30 – 1:00 pm Follower's Technique

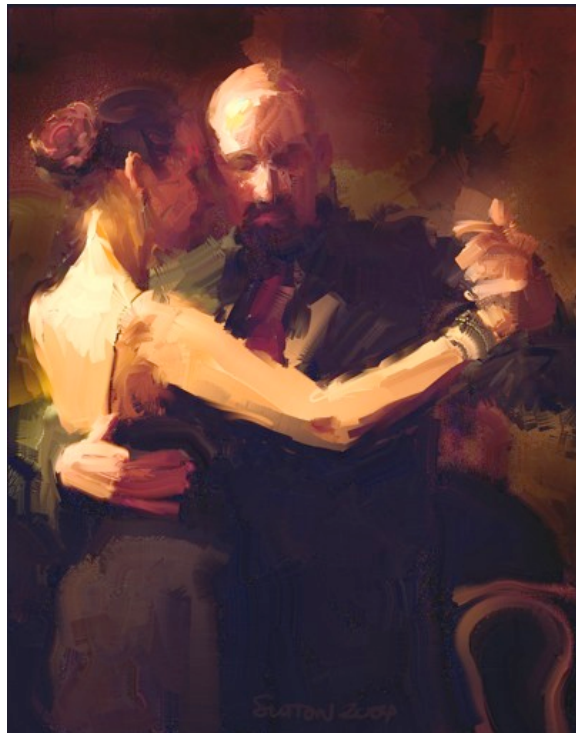

For all levels of dancers – a must for all Followers and Leaders. Study details concerning the follower's role in the dance. Leaders will gain a greater understanding of the structure of the dance.

2:00 – 3:30 pm Art of Improvisation

For all levels of dancers with some Argentine Tango experience. Learn the secrets of fluid and artistic improvisation and take your dancing to a higher level with an improvised, interesting, and musical approach.

3:30 – 5:00 pm Milonga (Beginning and Intermediate Levels)

Learn it today, dance it tonight! Use Tango technique in this fun and upbeat predecessor to the Tango. Intended for those who have completed, at a minimum, the Level 1 series at least once.

Chumash Auditorium, Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo

7:00 – 8:00 pm Tango Lesson (All Levels)

Whether you have been dancing tango for years or have never danced before, professional dance instructors from San Francisco and San Diego, Christy Coté and Darren Lees, will have you on your feet and enjoying the partnership and music that is Tango. No experience or partner required. This class is included in your admission to the Concert & Dance, and no parking permits required on Saturdays!

8:00 pm – 12:00 Concert/Dance/Performances

Even if you don't dance at all, enjoy the music of this premier Bay Area Tango Band and experience the passion of our SLO Tango Community celebrating the release of Tango No. 9's third album, Here Live No Fish. For your enjoyment, there will also be dance performances and other dance music during the band's breaks. Admission at the door is $16, or purchase in advance at the Cal Poly Dance Sport web site for $12 general, $10 with valid student ID, www.cpdst.org.

This event at Chumash Auditorium is not associated with the concert at the Performing Arts Center; therefore, if you do not park in the lots adjacent to the PAC, you do not have to pay their event parking fee. Chumash Auditorium is upstairs in the University Union at the end of Grand Ave. Please, contact Audrey with questions about the Concert & Dance, long.audrey@gmail.com, (805) 550-8040.

Sunday, October 28th

Central Coast Dance Studio, 2004 10th St., Los Osos

11:30 – 1:00 pm Musicality & Giros (Beginning and Intermediate Levels)

Dance effortlessly to different orchestras & with various styles. Understanding the music is the key to having an outstanding dance experience regardless of your skill level. Work on turning technique and music interpretation. Intended for all who have previously completed the Level 1 series.

1:00 – 2:30 pm Colgadas (Intermediate and Advanced Levels)

Create opportunities for various, challenging yet fun colgadas (shared axis turns). Partner required.

3:30 – 5:00 pm Advanced Improvisation (Advanced)

Create high level improvisational steps by combining enganches, colgadas, and sacadas. Experience with these elements and partner required.

Norm & Anne's House, 1309 Pasadena Dr., Los Osos

6:00 – 10:00 pm Potluck Dinner Event

Enjoy a dinner in honor of our special guests with thanks to Norm and Anne for hosting all us tango enthusiasts. Questions for Norm? natiber@charter.net, (805) 534-1501.
